

Fernando M. Pinguelo, Esq. (CIPP/US), a partner with Scarinci Hollenbeck and Chair of its Cyber Security & Data Protection and Crisis Management groups, is a trial lawyer who devotes his practice to complex business disputes with an emphasis on cyber security, data privacy, media, and employment matters in federal and state courts. A former prosecutor, Fernando's experience covers all facets of litigation (trial, mediation, arbitration, appellate) in both federal and state courts and he regularly handles "crisis litigation," including emergency applications with the courts. Recently, the leading global information services company retained him to address a data breach incident reportedly involving the theft of 15 million customers' sensitive data.

Fernando earned accreditation as an information privacy professional (CIPP) from the International Association of Privacy Professionals. He is the author of numerous publications, including eDiscovery for Corporate Counsel (Chapter 17 - Electronic Data, Cyber Security & Crisis Management (Thomson Reuters)), and lectures internationally on law and technology issues, including for the Judicial College and Escola Paulista da Magistratura, São Paulo.

He is also an Adjunct Professor of Law at Seton Hall University School of Law where he teaches a course on eDiscovery. He received a Fulbright Specialist appointment and served as a visiting faculty member at Universidade Presbiteriana Mackenzie, São Paulo.

Fernando is a member of the New Jersey Supreme Court Committee on the Rules of Evidence and Chair of the Privacy Law Special Committee of the New Jersey State Bar Association. He created the ABA Journal award-winning blog eLessons Learned (www.eLLblog.com) and eWhiteHouseWatch (www.eWHWblog.com). He clerked for The Honorable Edwin H. Stern, Appellate Division. Fernando received his B.A., magna cum laude, from Boston College and his J.D. from Boston College Law School.
