

M. James Daley, Esq., CIPP/US

M. James (Jim) Daley combines over thirty-five years of complex litigation experience, with his Master's Degree in Information Systems and his International Privacy Professional Certification to help clients reduce the legal risk and cost of global compliance with Cross-Border eDiscovery, International Information Governance, and Data Privacy, Security and Protection obligations. Jim serves as a trusted advisor for a wide variety of Fortune 500 clients, and was profiled by The American Lawyer as one of three attorneys "Who You 'Gonna Call" for international e-discovery counsel.

Jim and his team helps clients develop, implement, and defend (if challenged) practical and defensible protocols for cross-border ediscovery in business as well as litigation and regulatory contexts. Jim also helps clients develop, implement and defend policies, processes and technologies for global information governance and data privacy, data security and data protection obligations. processes and technologies. In particular, Jim is currently helping clients prepare to comply with the EU Data Protection Directive, The US/EU Privacy Shield Privacy Shield, and the new EU General Data Protection Regulation, effective May 25, 2018..

Jim is a frequent author and speaker on managing the risk of global ediscovery, data protection and business use of EU personal data. His professional presentation, publications and service include, among others:

- Charter Member of The Sedona Conference® Working Group One on Electronic Document Retention and Production (2002 - present);
- Co-Founder and Past Co-Chair of The Sedona Conference® Working Group Six on International Electronic Information Management, Discovery and Disclosure (2005-present);
- Editor-in-Chief of "The Sedona Conference® Framework for Analysis of Cross-Border Discovery Conflicts (2008),
- Author of "Information Age Catch 22: The Challenge of Technology to Cross-Border Disclosure and Data Privacy," 11 Sedona Conf. J. 121 (Fall 2011);
- Senior Editor of "The Sedona Conference® International Principles on Discovery, Disclosure and Data Protection" (2011);
- Contributing Author of the first German-language eDiscovery treatise: "EDiscovery im internationalen Rechtsstreit und Datenschutz," Erich Schmidt Verlag, Berlin (2011);
- Author, The Impact of Emerging Asia-Pacific Data Protection and Data Residency Requirements on Transnational Information Governance and Cross-Border Discovery, 16 Sedona Conf. J. (2015);
- Editor, The Sedona Conference International Principles on Discovery, Disclosure & Data Protection in Civil Litigation (Transitional Edition), January 2017